Major General Robert A. Breitwieser, USAF
Assistant Chief of Staff, Intelligence
United States Air Force
The Pentagon
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear General Breitwieser:

As Colonel Earl McFarland, Jr. leaves the Chairmanship of the Guided Missile and Astronautics Intelligence Committee (GMAIC) to take up a new Air Force assignment, I want to record the appreciation of the Intelligence Community for his outstanding contribution in that office.

During his tenure as chairman of the GMAIC from 1 October 1957 to 3 July 1962, Colonel McFarland gained a well-deserved reputation for his ability to reconcile often widely divergent positions within his Committee and for fair-minded representation of the views of the Committee membership. GMAIC's position today as the focal point in the Community for guided missiles and space intelligence is a tribute to the enlightened vision, impartial leadership, devoted interest and sustained efforts of Colonel McFarland in charting and skillfully guiding an effective Community approach in this new and critical area of intelligence.

Sincerely,

(Signed) John A. McCone

*Forwarded. However,
Gen. Carter feels that if
Col. Mc Garland did an

Merit.*

Short of that, he feels this ltr. should go to Lucy Zuckert.
